The Giants Are Coming

Most Famous Baseball Players in the World to Play Bryan Tomorrow Afternoon.

The Eagle is authorized to announce that the New York Giants, composed of the best and most famous ball players in the world, will play in Bryan at four o'clock Friday afternoon at the Academy grounds.

Mr. J. W. Hamilton, being advised by some of the leading business men that it would be a great treat to the citizens of Bryan in general if this game could be secured at this time, consequently he immediately called up the manager at Marlin and was informed that they would play here on tomorrow afternoon for a reasonable guarantee.

It will be remembered that "The Giants" are here in Texas, at Marlin, in training, for the coming season and will probably leave within a few days for the north. It is one chance of probably a life time to see such a great game as this and will no doubt meet with the support of the entire town. An effort will be made to give the A. and M. boys a chance to come in and witness the game, and with favorable conditions it is safe to say that the attendance will be the largest of anything of its kind ever known here.

Statement by Gov. Campbell's Father

T. D. Campbell of Greenville, father of Governor Thomas Mitchell Campbell is a gallant looking gentleman of the old South and sprightly for his years. How many are they? You must ask Governor Campbell that question. When a Times-Herald man put the question of his age to him, while he was in the company of D. A. Russell and other gentlemen in the lobby of the St. George hotel (which hostelry, by the way, Governor Campbell makes his headquarters when in Dallas), he remarked:

"Look here, young man, you must ask the governor that question. I am just nineteen years and four days older than Tom. Tom is a dutiful son, though born into the world before his father was of age. How do I stand on Baileysism? Well, I'm agin it, agin public servants serving corporations while pretending to serve the people, and Tom's against that thing too, but this isn't his fight. Tom is serving but a single master—the people—for a single salary, and my advice to Tom has been to let Bailey and the people settle their own differences. Tom has a vote and so have I, and that is all there is to it."—Dallas Times-Herald.

GENERALS FIGHT A DUEL.

Smirnov Is Probably Mortally Wounded by Fock.

St. Petersburg, March 18.—General Smirnov was probably fatally wounded by General Fock in a duel here this morning.

The men met at the riding school of the chevalier guard regiment and fought with pistols, standing close to each other when the shots were fired. The duel was caused by memorandum written by General Smirnov on the siege of Port Arthur, in which he questioned the courage of General Fock. The latter considered his honor and reputation involved and challenged the author of the document.

General Smirnov was acting commandant of Port Arthur fortress during the siege and at the time of its surrender to the Japanese. After his return to Russia he prepared a secret report of his defense of Port Arthur on which basis Lieutenant General Stoessel, Lieutenant General Fock and Major General Reiss were accused of cowardice and incapacity, and General Fock, according to the indictment, displayed thorough incapacity and want of judgment. The outcome of the trial was the sentencing to death of General Stoessel, which finding was commuted to ten years' imprisonment, while General Fock was ordered to be reprimanded for a disciplinary offense. General Smirnov was also on trial before the courtmartial, charged with having failed to remove General Fock from his command, as though he suspected an agreement between Generals Stoessel and Fock to surrender the fortress. He was acquitted on this charge.

The riding school was placed at the disposal of the combatants by the commander of the regiment and the duel occurred with the full knowledge and approbation of the military authorities. It was witnessed by several officers of high rank, and it is even said women were present.

Shortly before 10 o'clock Generals Fock and Smirnov appeared at the riding school. Without saluting they took the places assigned by their seconds. The distance between the two combatants was twenty paces and the duellists were instructed to open fire at the word of command, and continue until one or the other was killed. At General Fock's fourth shot, General Smirnov groaned and sank forward. He had been wounded in the abdomen above the right hip. He was carried in a litter to the military hospital, where doctors employed Roentgen rays to locate the bullet.

This duel will be followed by another between General Fock and General Gorbatoffsky, commander of the western front at Port Arthur, who was severely criticised by General Fock during the courtmartial proceedings.

Sentence Day for Orchard

Caldwell, Ida., March 18.—When the district court convenes today Harry Orchard will learn from Judge Fremont Wood the penalty he must pay for his part in the Steunenberg tragedy.

Orchard pleaded guilty to having killed ex-Governor Steunenberg by the explosion of a dynamite bomb at the gate of his residence here on the evening of December 30, 1906.

He was arrested for the crime on January 2, 1907, and in February confessed that he was hired to kill Steunenberg by William D. Haygood, secretary, Charles H. Moyer, president, and George A. Pettibone, honorary member of the Western Federation of Miners. Haywood and Pettibone were tried in Boise and set free. The case against Moyer was dismissed.

LABOR CONFERENCE.

It Is One of the Most Important Ever Held.

Washington, March 18.—A conference of far-reaching importance to labor began Wednesday. Participating on President Gompers and members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor. Together with the executive officers of international trades unions of America, who met pursuant to a call issued by President Gompers to consider the consequences of the recent injunction decision of the supreme court of the United States affecting labor organizations, with particular reference to Denbury hatters' case, in which the court substantially held that labor organizations must be considered trusts as much as organizations of capital. President Gompers stated that matters of importance to every union man would be discussed and an effort made to formulate plans to offset the rulings of various courts regarding injunction and boycotts.

There are 117 national and international trades unions in America and practically all of them are represented by one or more delegates at this meeting. The conference, which is being held behind closed doors, will continue several days.

M. Caceron gives much credit for this improved state of affairs to the active intervention of M. Borno, minister of state, who was the first to counsel this course of action.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Eagle is authorized to announce the following candidates for the offices indicated subject to the Democratic Primaries:

RUFUS HARDY (Re-election).
For Congress Sixth District:

BRYAN, TEXAS, MARCH 19, 1908

One consolation of the poor man is that he does not receive Black Hand letters demanding money.

Judd Mortimer Lewis, the humorist and sentimentalist of the Houston Post is in the hospital to be operated on for appendicitis. Mr. Lewis is universally beloved and many and fervent are the prayers for his recovery.

The American Tobacco Company, commonly known as the tobacco trust, has mounted a gatling gun on the top of its warehouse in Marysville, Ky., and detailed gunners to fire on the night riders if they attack the building. Wouldn't it be cheaper to pay a fair price for the product of the tobacco planters?

Those who are unrolling the moulding records of the ages have discovered that there was an oil monopoly in Egypt thousands of years ago. The Bible gives a history of Joseph concerning the wheat market in that same country before Israel was yet a nation. Monopolists then, like those of the present day, accomplished their object by destroying competition.

Waco is going to adopt the commission form of city government. Since this innovation was started in Galveston upon the reorganization after the great storm it has spread far and wide, many American cities have adopted it and European and Australian cities are discussing it. It must have some merit or it would not meet with so much favor. It has never failed to give satisfaction wherever tried.

Not often, if ever, in the history of Texas has it been so important as it is now to elect men to the legislature who will truly and faithfully represent their constituents. It is evident that a tremendous effort will be made by special interests to secure legislation in their own favor. It would be a good plan for every farmer, every mechanic and every business man before voting for a candidate to require him to commit himself upon all important questions likely to be acted on by the Thirty-first legislature.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S BIRTHDAY.

Princeton, N. J., March 18.—Grover Cleveland, the only living ex-president of the United States, was seventy-one years old today. Though he has lived in practical retirement since he left the White House more than ten years ago Mr. Cleveland has not by any means been forgotten by his former political associates, his personal friends and his legion of admirers. This was evidenced today by the receipt of countless letters and messages of congratulation at the Cleveland home in this city. The felicitous greetings came from all sections of the country and from men and women in all walks of life and of all shades of political belief.

Mr. Cleveland will take no part in the coming presidential campaign. His intentions in this regard have been made plain to friends who have approached him on the subject. The anti-Bryan element among the Democrats of New Jersey would like to have had Mr. Cleveland to go to the Denver convention as a delegate from this state. Old-line democrats in New York and throughout the East were ready to support the plan, but Mr. Cleveland could not be persuaded to give his consent. It is possible that the events of the coming campaign may so shape themselves as to bring from the ex-President a formal statement setting forth his views on the questions at issue, but he has given his friends to understand that so far as any public appearance or speech making goes he must be counted out.

Whenever the subject is broached Mr. Cleveland does not hesitate to reiterate his determination to resist all temptations to return to public life. He has steadfastly taken the position that any American who has been called to the presidency has received the highest honor in the gift of the American people and that to accept any other public office or to mix in politics would not only be selfish, but anti-climax.

At seventy-one years of age Mr. Cleveland is still in the enjoyment of pretty good health, thanks to his fishing and hunting trips and other forms of outdoor enjoyment. In magazine articles, in his conversation or his lectures to the students of Princeton, all the old power and clearness of thought are there.

When completed she will be placed under the control of the revenue cutter service of the Treasury Department, and her special duty will be in giving aid to distressed vessels and destroying cerelicts and other obstructions to navigation. She will cruise along the entire Atlantic coast from Maine to Florida.

The Seneca is an extremely staunch vessel, being designed to keep the ocean in all kinds of weather. She is 224 feet long, 24 feet beam, 15 1/2 feet draught, and will have a displacement of 400 tons. She will be fitted with triple expansion engines, and will have a speed of about fourteen knots.

GREAT MILLINERY OPENING.

A Gorgeous Display—Eugene Edge's Store Crowded With Devotees of Fashion... Greatest Event in the History of the Business.

When the Eagle's hired man called at Eugene Edge's "On the Corner," promptly at 10 o'clock yesterday morning he found the Millinery Department so packed and jammed with ladies that nothing less ponderous than the Rooseveltian big stick could have stirred them. Even the stairway half way down was crowded with those who had come too late for the first floor-full and were awaiting their turn. Baffled, but unwilling to lose the opportunity to feast his eyes on such a rich collation of beauty, the aforesaid hired man returned during the noon hour and was rewarded with an inspection at close range. Hats! Yes, that is what they are called; but it looked more like an exhibit at a flower show with the best specimens of the choicest products of Flora's Kingdom on exhibition.

Light browns are much in evidence. These include saffron tints and terracottas, which one inexperienced in colors might mistake for the old rose shade. The dark reddish brown, called Morocco, is one of the new favorites.

Blue holds a prominent position, especially the Louis XVI, a soft shade with rather more depth of color than Alice blue.

American Beauty shades, national Geranium and Poppy shades are in high favor.

The new lavender and mauves, especially the Lofelia mauve win admiration by their agreeable softness.

"Small" hats are a feature of this season's millinery, and many unique designs are shown; not an ordinary type in the collection: The artists seem to have chosen the small hat as a medium for expressing original ideas. The word "small" in this connection must be understood in an accommodated sense, for an inexperienced person does not know they are small by the looks of them, he has to be told so. The "Merry Widow" with high trimming is a stunner.

Fabrics of all kinds are of more than usual importance. Such as point esprit, nets and dotted nets of all kinds. Chiffon, both dotted and plain, and mo-line will be used in unlimited quantities. All sorts of trimmings are of gauze material.

If you would like to fool some wise Coffee Critic, who "knows fine coffee on taste and flavor", quietly make for him a batch of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee" and serve it piping hot. It deceives Mrs. Shoop, and will I believe deceive any one. And there is not a grain of real coffee in it. Health Coffee is made from pure toasted grains, malt, nuts, etc. Made in a minute—no 20 to 30 minutes tedious boiling. 1-12 pounds, 25c. Sold by J. M. Lawrence & Co.

GOLF CLUB OPENING.

As previously announced the Golf Club is to be formally opened this afternoon. Tom McNamara, a professional from Boston, but wintering at Houston, is to be with the club, and will probably be accompanied by three other Houston players. This will enable Bryan to see a match game of golf by the best golfers in Texas.

The grounds will of course be open to everyone, and no doubt quite a crowd will be out at 3:30 to see the start around the links. Interest in golf is growing and it is a matter of gratification to know that Bryan stands with Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, San Antonio, Austin, Galveston and El Paso in this respect, as those are the only cities in Texas with golf clubs.

ACTION OF FIRE DEPARTMENT HEARTILY ENDORSED.

There has been a great deal of discussion lately in regard to danger in case of fire of some of the public buildings in Bryan. At a recent meeting of the firemen the matter was discussed and Mr. C. E. Jenkins, secretary of the firemen reported that the school buildings had ample fire escape, there being no possible chance of danger at either the east or west side school, but owing to the fact that the opera house had but one exit he deemed it advisable to petition the council for additional exits. The result was that a committee was appointed to take the matter up at once. Following is a result of the work:

We, the undersigned citizens of Bryan, heartily endorse the action of the Bryan Fire Department in their endeavor to have the city council provide proper and additional exits to the opera house. We consider this move imperative and ask the city council to take immediate action:

"Health Coffee" is really the closest imitation ever yet produced. This, the finest coffee substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health Coffee is made from pure toasted cereals, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—who might drink it for coffee. No twenty or thirty minutes boiling. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. Sold by Jno. M. Lawrence & Co.

CLEVELAND SEVENTY-ONE

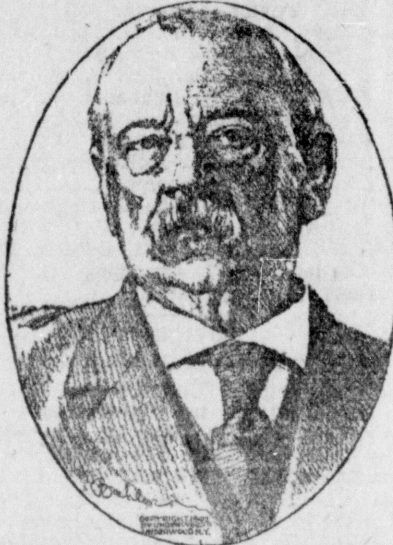

Former Chief Magistrate Arrives
at That Milestone

ALONG JOURNEY OF LIFE.

The Twenty-Second and Twenty-Fourth
Medical of the United States Seems
In Better Health Than For Months and Is Duly Remembered.

Lakewood, N. J., March 18.—Hon. Grover Cleveland quietly celebrated his seventy-first birthday Wednesday. The twenty-second and twenty-fourth president of the United States, although past the allotted three-score years and ten, took a long walk in the morning and seemed to be in excellent spirits. Mrs. Cleveland and the children came over from Princeton to spend the day with him. Each of the children brought a present and Princeton university students sent a congratulatory telegram.

"I have not felt so well in many a day," said Mr. Cleveland, as he walked into the lobby of the Lakewood hotel Tuesday. I took a longer walk today than I have taken in months. I feel fine. In fact, I believe I am in much better physical condition than I have been for a long time."

Mr. Cleveland has undoubtedly lost a great deal of flesh, but his medical advisers say that he is now in better health than he has been for some months.

"How about the national questions of the Democratic party?" Mr. Cleveland was asked. He made it plain that he did not care to discuss political issues.

"I do not see that what I could say will be of public interest," he said to one of his friends.

The manager of the Lakewood hotel prepared a surprise for Mr. Cleveland. He ordered an enormous cake baked and decorated it with seventy-one candles and put it on his table at luncheon.

From all parts of the country congratulatory telegrams poured in. Whenever Mr. Cleveland appeared in the lobby of the hotel, he was at once seized by friends wishing to shake hands with him.

WHISPERED PROPHECY.

Alla Told Woman That She Would Hear of a Shocking Murder.

Denver, March 18.—To an Italian woman at Paterson, N. J., says the News; Giuseppe Alla, who murdered Father Leo Heinrichs at the altar of St. Elizabeth's Catholic church of this city, whispered a Black Hand prophecy on the eve of his departure for the west. "Within six months you will hear of a murder that will shock the world," said he. When over the wires came the news of the assassination at Denver, the woman, stricken with terror, repeated the words of Alla.

Father Eusebius, while at Paterson, whither he journeyed with the dead priest, was informed of the interview which Alla had with the woman and caused inquiries to be made. He has returned to Denver with the news that may put the police on the track of a blood-thirsty band of the anti-clericals. Father Eusebius learned that Father Leo informed certain priests at Chicago some time ago that he received threatening letters. The writers declared they would kill him because of his denunciation of anarchy. A search is now being made among the effects of Father Leo for these letters.

PHYSICIAN ACCUSED.

Charged With Selling Worthless
Medical Certificates.

Sherman, Tex., March 18.—J. J. Davis, special agent of the Texas medical board, has filed a complaint at Denison against a physician for swindling. The charge grows out of the disposition of certificates from the old medical board, which was in existence prior to July 12, 1907; when the present law governing the practice of medicine went into effect and a new board was appointed. Large numbers of these certificates, which were ordered destroyed, have been peddled to people who desired to practice medicine, bringing, it is stated by Mr. Davis, sums ranging from $50 to $500. There will be a special meeting of the state medical board at Waco in a day or two. Mr. Davis says that one of the men engaged in disposing of these certificates will go before the board and make a clean breast of the whole affair. It was also stated that men high up in the profession would be affected, and that many arrests will follow.

Mr. Davis stated that Dr. Brumby, state health officer, was also looking after this matter on his recent visit to north Texas and Oklahoma. Most of the certificates mentioned, it is claimed, were disposed of in this section of Texas and in Oklahoma.

Hart Wins on Foul.

Hot Springs, March 18.—Before a large St. Patrick's day crowd Marvin Hart of Louisville was awarded the decision in the fourth round over John Willie of Chicago on a foul. Immediately following a clinch, and as Hart was stepping back, unprotected, Willie swung a right hard to the ear, sending Hart sprawling. Hart was unable to respond, and his ear may be seriously injured. "Doc" Hot-tum of Memphis awarded the decision.
